

Freedom for Syria

Syria has been ruled by the Assad family for over 40 oppressive years. The Syrian people have had enough and have finally risen up and overcome their fear to take on this regime. For the past 9 months thousands of Syrians have been protesting across the country for their rights and freedom. Their peaceful uprising has been met with a brutal response by the Syrian regime; killing & torturing thousands and detaining tens of thousands.

UNHCR Report

A recent UN Human Rights Commission (UNHCR) report "documents patterns of summary execution, arbitrary arrest, enforced disappearance, torture, including sexual violence, as well as violations of children's rights."
